Communication Regarding Student / Employee Absence on the Day of Eid Al Fitr

To Whom It May Concern

Dear Sir/Madam

Muslims throughout the United States will be celebrating Eid-al-Fitr on Monday, March 31st, 2025. Eid al-Fitr marks the conclusion of the sacred month of Ramadhan, a time of spiritual reflection, fasting, worship, and acts of charity. It is a day of communal prayer, family gatherings, and celebration of the values instilled during the month-long observance. On this day, Muslims all over the world conduct special prayers after sunrise, following which families visit each other and exchange gifts.

Islamic Center of MOMIN, Dallas will be holding special services for Eid al Fitr. On behalf of the members and their families, the Islamic Center of MOMIN, requests that students and any employee be excused from their daily activities to join in prayers and Eid-al-Fitr festivities.

We appreciate your understanding and support in recognizing this important religious observance and by marking this day off for religious activities and not as a day missed from work or school.

For further information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Kind regards,
Islamic Center of MOMIN
