To Whom It May Concern

Dear Sir/Madam

Muslims throughout the United States will be celebrating Eid-al-Adha on Friday, June 6th, 2025 as determined by Islamic Lunar Calendar.

Eid-al-Adha, also known as the "Festival of Sacrifice," is a major Islamic holiday that commemorates the willingness of Prophet Ibrahim (Abraham) to sacrifice his son in obedience to Allah's command. This holiday coincides with the annual Hajj pilgrimage to Mecca and is observed by Muslims worldwide through special prayers, charitable giving, and spending time with family and community.

Islamic Center of MOMIN, Dallas will be holding special services for Eid-al-Adha. On behalf of the members and their families, the Islamic Center of MOMIN, requests that students and any employee be excused from their daily activities to join in prayers and Eid-al-Adha festivities.

We appreciate your understanding and support in recognizing this important religious observance and by marking this day off for religious activities and not as a day missed from work or school. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.
